

Firm Shows its Team Colors! Thanks to everyone across the Firm who participated in “National College Colors Day!” Fans of Wake Forest, Georgia, Yale, UNC, Texas, Clemson and more came out in full force last Friday to show their team spirit. As some of you may know, our client Collegiate Licensing Company helped initiate this new national "holiday" on which everyone is encouraged to wear clothes featuring their favorite college colors, logos, names, etc. Below are photos from Firm offices who participated. Thanks to Charlie Henn for coordinating this event.
